Gratefulness

To Give of oneself is much more than giving something

Reflection on Gratitude

In today's terms, what is meant to give of oneself? Posting more on social media telling everyone about oneself? Developing a Youtube channel telling everyone about oneself? Or, a Podcast that focuses on letting everyone know about oneself? It seems that we are surrounded by so many "givers", but how much of the "giving" is what truly brings gratefulness. What is meant to "give of oneself?" As we turn our attention during Lent to the greatest example of giving oneself, in Christ, we can, hopefully, be open to giving to others more of our attention, time, care and love. These are "somethings" that can bring gratefulness to others...and also to oneself.

“Enough As She Is” by Rachel Simmons

“For many girls today, the drive to achieve is fueled by brutal self-criticism and an acute fear of failure. Though young women have never been more “successful”—outpacing boys in GPAs and college enrollment—they have also never struggled more. On the surface, girls may seem exceptional, but in reality, they are anxious and overwhelmed, feeling that, no how hard they try, they will never be smart enough, successful enough, pretty enough, thin enough, popular enough, or sexy enough.”

~Rachel Simmons

A deeply urgent book that gives adults the tools to help girls reject “supergirl” pressure, overcome a toxic stress culture, and become resilient adults with healthy, happy, and fulfilling lives.

We Need Your Help!

The facilities at Saint Jeanne de Lestonnac School sets us apart from most, if not all, private Catholic schools in Orange County. One facility that all of our students benefit from is the Field of Dreams. But, as with all upgrades, the facility and its benefits to the school come with a price. We hope that you can find it in your means to help our efforts in raising money for this great facility. Click to read more and how to help...
